BLIAIN AG FÁS

Fáilte

A chara,

Le 40 bliain anuas, tá Oideas Gael i dtús cadhnaíochta ag cur ag cur cúrsaí Gaeilge agus laetha saoire cultúrtha ar fáil. Le linn an ama sin tá na mílte ag tarraingt orainn ó gach cearn d'Éirinn agus ón iliomad tír ar fud an domhain. Is mór mo phléisiúr, mar sin, cuireadh a thabhairt duit a bheith inár guideachta agus taitneamh a bhaint as seal ama linn nach ndéanfaidh tú dearmad air.

I gceantar álainn dheisceart Dhún na nGall gheobhaidh tú deis ar leith páirt a ghlacadh, mar aon le daoine spéisiúla eile ag a bhfuil an aidhm chéanna, i sainghrúpa teagaisc faoi chúram oide chun Gaeilge a fhoghlaim nó a fheabhsú, sin nó dul ag siúl sna sléibhte, nó a bheith páirteach i gceann dár gearclanna, mar atá sa bhróisiúr: ceol, amhránaíocht, damhsaí agus péintéireacht.

Cibé rogha a dhéanfaidh tú féadfaidh tú a bheith cinnte go mbeidh sárlaetha saoire agat linn. Cuir scéala chugamsa le haghaidh tuilleadh eolais – agus scaip féin an dea-scéala!

Le gach dea-ghuí,
Liam Ó Cuinneagáin, Stiúrthóir

For 40 years, Oideas Gael has led the field in Irish language courses and cultural activity holidays. During this period, we have attracted thousands of participants from all over Ireland and throughout the world. I have great pleasure in inviting you to join us for what will prove to be an unforgettable experience.

In the beautiful setting of south Donegal you will have a unique opportunity with other interesting and motivated people to learn or improve your Irish in a tutorial group, or to go hill-walking, or participate in music, song, dance, painting or other workshops, as set out in this brochure. Whatever you choose, a pleasant holiday is assured.

Contact me for further details – and do pass on the word.

Oideas Gael

Since its foundation in 1984, Oideas Gael has attracted hundreds of participants annually to its highly acclaimed language courses and cultural programmes. Irish people, drawn from all backgrounds, constitute up to half of those attending, while the remainder travel specially from numerous other parts of the world to attend. The unique blend of expertly prepared courses, together with an attractive mix of cultural sessions, all located within Gaeltacht communities, enabling learners to improve their fluency in Irish while, at the same time, enjoying our living culture. As an alternative to the graded language courses, a broad range of cultural activity programmes is offered to participants interested in experiencing a unique style of learning holiday.

Foras Cultúir Uladh

Foras Cultúir Uladh (The Ulster Cultural Institute), with its custom-designed facilities, including wireless broadband, (free to course participants), is used by Oideas Gael in Gleann Cholm Cille as the venue for its varied activities and caters for the specific needs of language learners and the special requirements of the cultural programme.

Aims of Oideas Gael

Aidhmeanna Oideas Gael

- Freastal a dhéanamh ar dhaoine fásta maidir le foghlaim, cleachtadh agus feabhsú na Gaeilge. To provide for adult Irish language learners, enabling them to learn enjoyably and efficiently.
- Páirt a ghlacadh i saol na Gaeltachta. To participate in the daily life of the Gaeltacht.
- Litríocht agus cultúr na Gaeilge a chur chun cinn. To promote the Irish language and its literature.
- Ceangal caradais a neartú idir Gaeil ar fud an domhain. To promote relationships between people of Gaelic background and interests world-wide.
- Caidreamh idir muintir na Gaeltachta agus pobal na hÉireann uilig a chothú tríd an Ghaeilge. To promote relations between Gaeltacht people and the rest of Ireland through the language.
- Daoine de gach cúlra cultúrtha, creidimh agus polaitiúil a thabhairt le chéile trí mheán na Gaeilge. To bring together people of all cultural & political backgrounds through the medium of Irish.

Language Courses

Cúrsaí Gaeilge

OIDEAS GAEL language courses are specially designed to cater for the needs of adults at all learning stages, including those who are more advanced but in need of practice. Each course contains three or more levels: beginner, intermediate and advanced and is usually of one week's duration.

CLASS TUITION is by specialist teachers who use graded courses, supported by modern audiovisual resources, as well as other proven methods of language teaching. The daily schedule consists of intensive morning and afternoon tutorials with attention directed towards spoken Irish (except for some units at the highest level) aiming at correct pronunciation, proper idiom and development of vocabulary, particularly of contemporary life. Our aim is to foster conversational ability and fluency, with up to 35 language contact hours per course. Recreational activities such as dancing, poetry, or guest lectures take place each evening, after which participants are free to practise their Irish with people from all other levels while enjoying the craic in the local pubs.

The social format of the courses ensures that people attending on their own quickly feel comfortable and at ease within the group.

It has been the experience of the Directors that beginners who complete a two-week programme succeed in achieving a marked improvement in fluency.

Language & Culture Summer School

Scoil Samhraidh Teanga & Cultúir

This special flagship course focuses attention on language learning each morning, with tutorial sessions in Irish at several levels, while the afternoon period provides workshops in such diverse activities as tin whistle, set dancing, sean-nós singing, hill walking and study groups which focus on specific elements of Irish culture. Each of these workshops is under the direction of an expert in that field. The evening events include lectures in Irish folklore, poetry readings and concerts of traditional music & song.

20–27 Iúil

€260

Cultural Activity Courses

Cúrsaí Cultúrtha

Cultural activity courses are organised in a bilingual form, making them accessible to people with little or no Irish. All courses offer participants an unparalleled opportunity to enjoy an activity holiday within a rich cultural setting. All participants in the cultural courses are encouraged to take part in the evening schedule of dancing, song, poetry and concerts.

Hillwalking Siúl

The Sliabh Liag Peninsula offers some of the most breathtaking settings in Ireland for walking. Our experienced and well-informed guides lead a programme which is physically and culturally rewarding for novice and experienced walker alike.

Language and Landscape

Teanga & Timpeallacht

There is a wealth of language, archaeology, history, folklore, nature and music in Gleann Cholm Cille. This course, which moves between the classroom and the outdoors, will give you the opportunity to sample all of these aspects of our unique heritage while also practising your spoken Irish.

15–22 June

Exploring the Environment An Timpeallacht

An exploration of both the natural and man-made heritage of the region with morning presentations and afternoon field trips. Topics include: the landscape before the arrival of man, the impact of the first inhabitants, the bogs and their flora and fauna, patterns of land use and other environmental themes.

29 June–6 July

€210

Archaeology Seandálaíocht

“5,000 years in Stone” is the theme of this programme. Field trips are organised to the numerous pre- and early Christian monuments of the region as well as evening lectures by scholars in early Irish literature, history, art, archaeology & folklore.

27-3 August

3–6 May

€120

Nature & Heritage Dúlra & Dúchas

This brand-new course focuses on the relationship between Ireland's natural heritage and traditional culture. Through illustrated talks and hands-on field trips participants study Ireland's flora and fauna and how they appear in folklore, superstition, natural cures and traditional remedies.

17-24 August

The Road to Glenlough An Bealach go Gleann Lach

Local folklore holds that Bonnie Prince Charlie, pretender to the British crown, sheltered north at Gleann Lach (Glenlough) in 1746. More certain is that famed American painter Rockwell Kent and Welsh poet Dylan Thomas lived for a time in this remote area. This course mixes history, art, poetry and social history with illustrated lectures and guided walks to tell the story of a truly unique place.

3-6 May

€120

Specialised Courses Cúrsaí Speisialta

COURSES FOR TEACHERS Múinteoirí Bunscoile

Tugtar aitheantas, de ghnáth, do chúrsaí Oideas Gael faoi Riall 58 mar chúrsaí inseirbhíse a thuilleann saoire bhreise phearsanta.

Courses are usually recognised by 'An Roinn Oideachais' under rule 58 for in-service training and extra personal leave.

SPECIAL GROUP COURSES

Irish courses are organised during the year by special request.

Oideas Gael also offers group study or semester programmes for universities, companies, social clubs and other organisations requiring specialist courses on the Irish language, culture, traditional music, archaeology, environment, folklore, weaving or other disciplines.

Combination and online courses are also organised by special arrangement. Accommodation and travel can be arranged to suit particular requirements. These courses are offered outside of our regular summer schedule thus giving students an excellent opportunity to interact with local people and to participate in the everyday life of the community.

Scrúdú Cáilíochta na Gaeilge

Oideas Gael Irish language courses are appropriate for teachers wishing to learn and improve their spoken Irish for 'Scrúdú Cáilíochta na Gaeilge' (SCG/OCG) and other qualifications.

(See www.oideasgael.ie for dates)

Recent external programmes offered at Oideas Gael include:

- 4-week language & cultural programme for Evergreen State College, Washington.
- 15-week 'Colmcille Semester' programme offered by the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee, in conjunction with Oideas Gael & Ulster University at Derry.
- The Irish Studies program offered by Hartwick College, Oneonta, NY.
- 2-week immersion program for the University of Prince Edward Island, Canada.
- Indigenous Languages in the Contemporary World program offered by the University of Southern California.

Course Locations

Ceantair

Gleann Cholm Cille

This Gaeltacht area of southwest Donegal, named after St. Colm Cille, is located in the scenically splendid Sliabh Liag peninsula.

The region is renowned for its wealth of tradition, culture, music and prehistoric settlements, as well as the excellent amenities specially created here, such as the famous Folk Village, founded by Fr. McDyer as a result of notable community effort, to which the work of Oideas Gael continues to contribute. An tOireachtas, the major celebration of Irish language and culture, took place here in October 1989.

Gleann Fhinne & Toraigh

An Coimín, Gleann Fhinne, is located on the fringe of the impressive Cruacha Gorma (Blue Stack Mountains) in the heart of the Donegal Highlands. Oileán Thoráí is a thriving island community, a 45-minute ferry trip from Cé Mhachaire Rabhartaigh. Both areas are well known for their riches of oral tradition, as well as the excellence of their native singers and dancers. Our courses in these lively Irish-speaking communities offer participants with an unequalled opportunity for social and cultural interaction with vibrant communities of diverse ages and talents.

All Courses are held in our main centre in Gleann Cholm Cille

EXCEPT our courses on Toraigh 15-22 June (Cúrsa Gaeilge) & 22-28 June (Saibhreas na Gaeilge) and our two language courses in An Coimín, Gleann Fhinne, 20-27 July & 27 July-3 August
